

Startup

The startup tab is where you can change various settings about your server at a more advanced level.

The Startup command is locked, If you would like to make changes to it, please make a ticket on our support discord server

Changing the docker image is moreover needed with minecraft, If you plan on running older/newer servers you will need to run different docker images. each image changes what java version your server will use

Other Variables will change with each game service, so read around
